Dear Colleagues,

This year, the Canadian Nurses Association (CNA) is moving to a fully digital application and testing process.

Application is exclusively online, and exams will be written at computer-based testing centers across the country, on selected dates during the testing window.

The online registration runs now until August 8, 2016 and is accessible via the CNA website at:

<https://nurseone.ca/en/certification/get-certified>

The initial certification exam period is September 19 to October 7, 2016.

The following link takes you to the Nephrology Bibliography that includes key resources to prepare for the exam:
